A ‘NETWORK FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW STUDENTS – INDIA’ INITIATIVE

“CALL FOR EDITORS”

APPLY BY 29th OCTOBER 2017

About NILS

The Network for International Law Students (“NILS”) is an international, independent, non-political, non-profit organisation, run by and for law students. It seeks to promote legal awareness among all the people and encourage communication and cooperation among law students and lawyers internationally; contribute to legal education; promote social responsibility in the field of law; increase opportunities for students to learn about other cultures and legal systems worldwide; and publicize educational and career opportunities in law.

NILS INDIA is one of the many chapters of NILS; we help law students to understand and appreciate the diversity and share the ideals of law in society through exchange and communication among law students of all countries.

About the Journal

NILS INDIA Law Review (“NILR”) is an initiative of NILS India.

NILR shall employ double blind peer review and publish online bi-annually. The Journal will be a forum for students and professionals in the field of law, to publish well researched, original papers focusing on different thematic areas of contemporary legal issues

In keeping with the goals of the organization, the initiative will be an avenue for individuals to become academically committed and legally skilled.

NILR shall adopt an open - access model to ensure outreach of Legal scholarship to a worldwide audience.

Any further information regarding the journal can be accessed through the following link - <http://www.nilsindia.org/nilr.html>
