Bar & Bench (www.barandbench.com)

Heard learned counsel for the respective parties. Considering the impugned common judgment and order passed by the High Court, it appears that the High Court has not considered the Application for anticipatory bail on merits. We set aside the impugned common judgment and order passed by the High Court, and direct the anticipatory bail application to be heard afresh by the High Court on 10th June, 2019. The High Court will decide the anticipatory bail on merits and in accordance with law, after hearing all the parties, and taking into consideration the material on record.

In the meantime, the applicants are directed to comply with any Notice/Notices issued under Section 41A, Cr.P.C., and appear before the Investigating Officer and co-operate with the investigation.

Shri Ranjit Kumar learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the Respondent-State has stated at the bar that till the anticipatory bail application is decided by the High Court on remand, if the Investigating Officer wants to arrest the applicants, 48 hours prior notice shall be given.

The Special Leave Petitions stand disposed of accordingly.
