1. Officers in attendance were welcomed by the Chairperson. The Karnataka Police Department has invited applications for direct recruitment of 2420 Special Constables (Male and Female) and 252 Bandsman (Male) posts in the Karnataka State Special Gazette on 28.03.2020. An organization named 'Sangama' has filed public interest litigation before the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka, saying that the transgender person's rights are violated because the above recruitment notification which does not allow transgender people to apply to the said posts. With respect to the said case, W.P. 8511/2020 has been filed requesting to direct the respondents to treat transgender persons as a separate category in the appointment of special reserve police constables and bandsman posts and to make a reservation policy for them.

2. Advocate General is present on behalf of the Government when the case comes up on 21.07.2020, before a bench headed by the Chief Justice of the Hon'ble Karnataka High Court. It was informed that, submission was made to Hon'ble High Court by the Advocate General that, the State Government has in principle agreed to make reservations for the transgender community which was based on the decision of the meeting held between Additional Chief Secretary to Government, Home Department and Additional Director General of Police. Based on the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act, 2019 and Decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of the National Legal Service Authority V/s Government of India and others [(2014) 5 SCC 438], Hon'ble High Court directed to frame a policy and submit the same on or before 04.08.2020 and further it ordered to post the matter on 06.08.2020. In these circumstances Additional Government Advocate have been asked to provide information on government policy vide fax dated: 21.07.2020. Therefore, the present meeting was called.

3. After discussing the matter in detail, the committee took following decisions.

1. Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has framed the draft of the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Rules, 2020 under the act, which has not yet been finalized.

2. The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India has sent the draft Rules of Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Rules, 2020, for the opinion of State Government, accordingly, action in this regard has to be taken by Department of Women and Child Development, Empowerment of Differently Abled and Senior Citizens.

3. Provision for appointment of transgender persons is a matter of Government Policy and the Cabinet must make a decision in consultation with relevant departments. Therefore, this information should be brought to the notice of the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka through Home Department and to seek necessary time.

4. Department of Personnel and Administrative Reform should place the draft cabinet note on priority basis.

The meeting was concluded with greetings.
