Blurbs and Reviews –

Mr. Kiren Rijju, Hon'ble Union Minister of Law and Justice

"A handbook like this will have a vast outreach in international community, especially foreign arbitrators, who will benefit the most out of this handbook. The wide fora of topics that have been covered in this handbook will guide and assist the arbitrators with necessary know-how to conduct the arbitral proceedings. The true purpose of Alternative Dispute Resolution can only be achieved by enabling the arbitrators with weapons, such as this handbook, which will assist not just with the law on subject but also enlighten on the procedural aspects for conducting the proceedings."

Hon'ble Dr. Justice D. Y. Chandrachud, Judge, Supreme Court of India

"The readers of the handbook will have the benefit of engaging with the scholarship of a diverse group of contributors who interact with the mechanism of arbitration in various capacities on an everyday basis. Their vision will help in strengthening the mechanism. Their awareness of the pitfalls will ensure the continuous evolution of the law, procedure and practice of arbitration. "

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Krishna Murari, Judge, Supreme Court of India

"The book is recommended as a must have and read for all. I congratulate Mr. Shashank Garg for performing the herculean task of compilation of contributions from experts, having academic excellence and profound knowledge of subject. "

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vikram Nath, Judge, Supreme Court of India

"A definitive, analytical and informative handbook composed of elucidations from world renowned and leading jurists, arbitrators and practitioners. The contents throw light on all the critical aspects pertaining to arbitration proceedings. The book is not only supportive for arbitrators, providing them with all necessary and relevant references, but also for the practitioners providing them, inter alia, with an insight into the mindset of the arbitrator, thereby enabling them to approach the proceedings in a manner which is more pragmatic. "

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Satish Chandra Sharma, Chief Justice, High Court of Delhi

"I would like to congratulate the editor, Mr Garg who has performed yeoman service by painstakingly coordinating and collecting these valuable contributions from such learned authors and presenting them as a curation of multifaceted experiences in the field of arbitration. This would provide thorough clarity in the concepts and practice related to the arbitration space and shall benefit arbitrators, practitioners and readers alike."

Mr. Gary Born, Partner, Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP

"I wholeheartedly recommend this handbook to anyone interested in the practice or theory of international arbitration."

Mr. V.K. Rajah SC, International Arbitrator, Duxton Hill Chambers

"The carefully curated contributions in this book by several arbitration thought leaders draw on developments and practices in India as well as in the international landscape. Perhaps, the most distinctive feature of this book are the authoritative contributions by sitting and retired Indian Judges. That said, this book deserves a broad transnational audience as it comprehensively covers all the processual features and principles of international arbitration. "

Prof. George Bermann, Professor, Columbia Law School

"Arbitrator's Handbook takes current and prospective arbitrators through all the basics of the arbitral process from beginning to end and in all of its essential features. It is difficult to imagine a work that could more effectively present all that needs presenting in order, effortlessly, to achieve a full and especially practical understanding of how the process works and what can be expected to happen over its course"

Mr. Alexis Moure, Founding Partner and International Arbitrator, Moure Gutiérrez Chessa Arbitration

"The quality of the contributions will give to its readers new and refreshing perspectives on virtually all the most difficult and highly debated issues in our fast-evolving profession. As such, it will be an indispensable part of the toolbox of any arbitration practitioner, counsel, arbitrator, or expert. "
