At 02:05 PM

Present: Sh. Sanjay Vashisht, Ld. Counsel for the complainant.

The counsel for the complainant submits that FIR in this case was directed to be registered on 19.04.2022 by the orders of Ld. Sessions court and after the complainant had moved an application for monitoring, the FIR was registered by the concerned SHO. The counsel submits that the complainant still has not got any information regarding the registration of FIR but on 29.07.2022, an article was published in Hindustan Times, Hindi Editorial on the first page about the allegations of the complainant in the present FIR. The counsel submits that after registration of FIR, it is uploaded on CCTNS, which takes some time and to access the FIR, a person requires the name of the complainant, FIR No. and the date of registration. He submits that the only person in knowledge of said facts would be the DO or the IO.

CT Cases 1169/2022

ASHOK KUMAR CHOUDHARY Vs. JEENA JOSEPH AND ORS.

PS Malviya Nagar

The counsel alleges that the FIR has been deliberately leaked to the Media as the complainant is a high profile person and the said facts would result in tarnishing his image.

Perusal of the FIR shows that it was registered on 22.07.2022 by HC Bablu. Considering the facts of the case and the allegations, let notice be issued to concerned SHO with direction to explain how Hindustan Times came in the knowledge of the present FIR, the kinds of complaint in which the complaint is treated as sensitive information and discretion is exercised by the SHO to not share the same. The counsel is also directed to furnish guidelines in order to show that such cases fall under sensitive information category.

Even the Ahlmad has reported that no CA has been filed in this case.

List the matter for further proceedings on 30.08.2022.
