MEET THE SPEAKERS

SAYAN BHATTACHARYA

Sayan, a NALSAR Class of 2021 graduate, is headed to Harvard Law School to pursue his LL.M. He is supported by the Narotam Sekhsaria Foundation and the K.C. Mahindra Education Trust Scholarships. He recently served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the then Chief Justice of India, Sanjiv Khanna, following the start of his legal career at Trilegal.

While at NALSAR, he was actively involved with IDIA and contributed to establishing the NALSAR Accessibility Lab. He also served as the Debate Convenor and published opinion pieces in leading Indian dailies like the Hindu and the Mint. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he co-founded a non-profit that worked to improve access to education in rural Bengal.

DAYAAR SINGLA

Dayaar will be reading for the BCL at Oxford on the Ratanshaw Bomanji Zaiwalla Scholarship. He graduated from NALSAR in 2021 as Best All Round Student with 3 Gold Medals.

He is currently practising as an Advocate in the Chambers of Mr. Ritin Rai (Senior Advocate & Door Tenant, 7 KBW). He has served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the then Chief Justice of India Dr. Justice D.Y. Chandrachud and started his career with India's leading TMT Practice Group at Trilegal. He also serves as a Senior Editor for India's oldest public law blog, Law and Other Things.
