As the copyright owner of original content on its website and social media, the Plaintiff holds exclusive rights as per Section 14 of the Copyright Act, which includes the right to reproduce the works in any material form, issue copies, and communicate the works to the public.

25.9. Plaintiff enjoys a significant and active presence with the verified accounts across various social media platforms. Details and links to the Plaintiff's official social media accounts are set out at paragraph 20 of the plaint.

25.10. Pertinently in July 2025, the Plaintiff became aware that Defendants are infringing the Plaintiff's copyright and well-known trademark 'NDTV' without any authorization or permission. The Defendants are found to be hosting websites/URL's/social media channels/messaging platforms ('impugned platforms') and communicating with the public using the Plaintiff's registered trademarks, thereby misrepresenting themselves as being associated with the Plaintiff.

26. Ms. Kripa Pandit, learned counsel for the Plaintiff states that as per the Plaintiff's knowledge Defendant No. 1 (i.e. unknown entity) and Defendant No. 2 are operating websites that disseminate news content while incorporating the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV' as part of their domain name.

She refers to the list of infringing domain names enlisted at paragraph 31 of the plaint.

26.1. She states that the owner of the impugned website - <https://ndtv-news.com/> (Sr. No. 1) is operating a news channel in the name and style of ‘NDTV News/’, and as per the WHOIS records, the impugned website was registered on 15.08.2023 through Defendant No. 2 i.e. Dynadot Inc. She states that the impugned website clearly incorporates the Plaintiff’s registered trademark ‘NDTV’. Screenshot of the impugned website is set out at paragraph 34 of the plaint.

26.2. She states that the owner of the impugned website - <https://ndtv-hindu.com/> (Sr. No. 2) is operating a website in the name and style of ‘NDTV Hindu/ NDTV HINDU’. As per the WHOIS records, the impugned website was registered on 28.11.2023 through Defendant No. 4 i.e. NameCheap, Inc. She states that the impugned website clearly incorporates the Plaintiff’s registered trademark ‘NDTV’. Screenshot of the impugned website is set out at paragraph 35 of the plaint.

26.3. She states that the owner of the impugned website - <https://ndtvforums.com/> (Sr. No. 3) is operating a website that appears to be an online forum which engages users in news related discussions. She states that as per the WHOIS records, the impugned website was registered on 26.08.2024 through Defendant No. 5 i.e. BigRock Solutions Limited. She states that the Plaintiff’s investigation also revealed that Defendant No. 2 is the owner/registrant of this impugned website. She states that the impugned website clearly incorporates the Plaintiff’s registered trademark ‘NDTV’. Screenshot of the impugned website is set out in paragraph 36 of the plaint.

26.4. She states that the owner of the impugned website -

<https://www.ndtvbd.com/> (Sr. No. 4) is operating a Bengali language news

channel in the name and style of 'NDTV BD News/

She states that the impugned website closely imitates and copies the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV', with the intent to capitalize on the established goodwill and reputation of the Plaintiff Company. She states that the inclusion of the word 'BD' in small fonts does not alter the overall impression and deceptive similarity with the Plaintiff's well-known trademark 'NDTV'. As per the WHOIS records, the impugned website was registered on 17.08.2021 through Defendant No. 6 i.e. Sav.com, LLC. Screenshot of the impugned website is set out at paragraph 37 of the plaint.

26.5. She states that the impugned website - <https://ndtvnewschannel.com/> (Sr. No. 5) is an online news website that has reproduced the Plaintiff's registered trademark NDTV in entirety, more specifically the name and style of the impugned website 'NDTV New Channel/

Plaintiff's well-known and widely popular device-mark ' NDTV.COM '.

She states that the use of the font, colors, and even the globe device between the letters of 'N' and 'D' resembles the Plaintiff's registered trademarks

'NDTV/  /  /  '.

She states that Defendant No. 1 is not only infringing the Plaintiff's trademarks but is also passing off itself as associated with the Plaintiff Company by adopting the Plaintiff's well-known trademark in the domain name and using the same for identical news broadcasting services. She states that as per the WHOIS records, the impugned website was registered on 04.04.2019 through Defendant No. 7 i.e. GoDaddy India Domains Services Private Limited and Defendant No. 8 i.e GoDaddy.com, LLC. Screenshot of the impugned website is set out in paragraph 38 of the Plaint.

26.6. She states that the impugned website - <https://ndtv24.in/> (Sr. No. 6) has been created under the name and style of 'NDTV 24/

24'. She states that the adoption of 'NDTV' by the Defendant No. 1 in the impugned website as well as the adoption of a deceptively and confusingly similar logo on the impugned website clearly amounts to a violation of the Plaintiff's trademarks. She states that as per the WHOIS records, the impugned website was registered on 29.07.2021 through Defendant No. 9 i.e., Porkbun LLC. Screenshot of the impugned website is set out at paragraph 39 of the plaint.

26.7. She states that the impugned websites at Sr. No. 7-14, have incorporated the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV' within their domain names, and these websites are inactive (at the time of filing the present suit) however, the domain names are still registered and is active. She states that given that these domains/ URL's have not expired and are still valid domains, the Plaintiff has a strong apprehension that the impugned websites may become active again in the future if not restrained/ suspended/ blocked by the Court.

26.8. She states that the impugned websites are registered with Defendant Nos. 3 to 15 and therefore interim directions are sought against the said

Defendants for locking and suspending the domain names of the impugned websites.

26.9. She states that Plaintiff has also discovered that unknown Defendant No. 1 is hosting multiple channels on YouTube/Defendant No. 16's platform that incorporate the Plaintiff's registered trademark, 'NDTV', without any authorization. She states that these YouTube channels are using the Plaintiff's registered trademark to share video content with public in a manner that is likely to cause confusion among the public as to the origin of the content.

She refers to the list of the Defendant No.1's infringing YouTube channels enlisted in paragraph 41 of the plaint, where the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV' and its formative marks are being used.

26.10. She states that the unknown Defendant No. 1 is operating various groups on Telegram/Defendant No. 17's platform which entirely incorporates the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV', which is clearly intended to confuse the public into believing that these Telegram Groups are affiliated with or endorsed by the Plaintiff, when in fact no such affiliation or connection exists. She further states that the illegal adoption and use of the Plaintiff's registered logo 'NDTV' and  on Defendant No. 1's Telegram Groups without permission amounts to infringement of the Plaintiff trademarks.

She refers to a list of the infringing Telegram Groups enlisted at paragraph 42 of the plaint, which are operating on Defendant No. 17's platform.

26.11. She states that a large number of unauthorized and anonymous X

(formerly Twitter)/Defendant No. 18's handles, including but not limited to the 120 plus impugned handles, are unlawfully incorporating the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV' as part of their usernames, display names, and/or bios. She further states that these impugned handles are masquerading as legitimate affiliates, extensions, or representatives of the Plaintiff and are using the Plaintiff's trademark without authorization or license in a manner that is calculated to deceive the public.

She refers to list of these impugned handles enlisted at paragraph 44 of the plaint, operating on Defendant No. 18's platform.

26.12. She states that the Plaintiff has identified multiple Facebook accounts and pages (Defendant No. 19) that unlawfully impersonate Plaintiff and falsely claim affiliation with or endorsement by the Plaintiff. She states that these accounts and pages uses the Plaintiff's registered trademark 'NDTV' in various capacities, including page names and visual elements, to mislead viewers into believing that they are official representations of the Plaintiff. She asserts that these accounts infringe upon her intellectual property rights and unjustly exploit the goodwill associated with her NDTV marks, resulting in acts of passing off, dilution, trademark infringement, and unjust enrichment

She refers to the list of such impugned accounts/pages enlisted at paragraph 46 of the plaint.

26.13. She states that the impugned handles/accounts/pages of Defendant Nos. 16, 17, 18 and 19 pose a serious risk to democratic discourse, journalistic integrity, and public perception, as the general public may mistakenly attribute the false, misleading, or inflammatory content posted by these accounts to that of the Plaintiff's. She also states that such impersonation, coupled with the unauthorized use of the Plaintiff's well-known trademarks, amounts to a concerted digital attack on the Plaintiff's identity and standing as a credible news organization.

26.14. She states that the Defendant Nos. 1 and 2's impugned websites, social media accounts, links and channels are disseminating, reposting, and broadcasting news content that is frequently unverified, inaccurate, and speculative, misrepresenting it as originating from or being endorsed by the Plaintiff. She states that the inclusion of the Plaintiff's well-known trademark 'NDTV' on these platforms constitutes a deliberate act of misrepresentation, aimed at exploiting the Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill, and journalistic credibility.

26.15. She submits that the Defendant No. 20/Department of Telecommunications (DOT) and Defendant No. 21/Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY) are necessary parties for facilitating compliance of the orders passed vis-à-vis take down of the impugned websites enlisted in paragraph 31 of the plaint.

27. This Court has considered the submissions of the learned counsel for the Plaintiff.

28. It is a matter of record that Plaintiff is the registered proprietor of its trademark 'NDTV' and its formatives  /

. The Plaintiff's trademark 'NDTV' has also been declared as a well-known trademark by the Trade Marks Registry in the Trade Journal dated 03.02.2025. The Plaintiff Company was founded in the year 1988 and has been in the business of news broadcasting and digital journalism since then.

29. Upon perusal of the plaint, documents placed on record, and the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the Plaintiff, this Court is of the prima facie opinion that Defendants are indulging in unauthorisedly using/promoting deceptively similar variants of the Plaintiff's trademark 'NDTV' and trying to create an impression to the general public that they are connected/associated with the Plaintiff Company.

30. The submission of the Plaintiff that the viewers may be misled to believe that the discourse or information being shared on the aforesaid impugned websites, accounts, links or channels is from the Plaintiff itself, appears to be plausible. The trademark 'NDTV' has been used by the Defendant Nos. 1 and 2 in its entirety.

31. In view of the above, the Plaintiff has made out a prima facie case for the grant of ex-parte ad-interim injunction. The balance of convenience also lies in favour of the Plaintiff and the infringing actions of the Defendants, if not restrained, shall cause irreparable harm to the Plaintiff which cannot be compensated in the monetary terms.
