I.A. 32240/2025

28. The present suit has been filed for permanent injunction restraining the infringing defendants from infringement of trademark, passing off, unfair competition, rendition of accounts, damages etc.

29. Learned counsel for the Plaintiff sets up the Plaintiff's case as follows:

29.1. The Plaintiff, SNV Aviation Private Limited, is a well-known and esteemed airline company and has been consistently serving the travel industry with distinction.

29.2. The Plaintiff has been continuously and extensively using its renowned trademarks, in all its forms and variations, since at least 2021 and holds several registrations for its mark AKASA AIR and other formatives in India as well as in other jurisdictions, details of which are given at paragraphs 13 and 15 of the plaint.

29.3. The Plaintiff has also been operating its website as available at <https://www.akasaair.com> since 2021, which provides extensive information about the services offered by the Plaintiff.

29.4. Plaintiff has, under the Plaintiff's trademarks, made extensive sales running into crores of rupees over the past years. For the financial year 2024-25 (till date) the Plaintiff's total external turnover is of Rs. 4582.7 crores as mentioned in paragraph 16 of the plaint.

Overview of the Defendants:

29.5. Defendant Nos. 1-18 are colluding and perpetuating job scams by impersonating the Plaintiff and unauthorisedly using the Plaintiff's trademarks "AKASA", "AKASA AIR", "SNV Aviation",

" , " , " , " , as well as the impugned marks "AKASHA" and "AKAASA", in an attempt to cheat and extract money from various unwary individuals.

29.6. The Plaintiff has received multiple emails and complaints from several members of the public stating that Defendant Nos. 1 to 18 have contacted them through telephone calls and emails, falsely representing themselves as agents or employees of the Plaintiff company and offering purported employment opportunities therein. In the course of such communications, the said defendants demanded payment of "process fees" under the false pretext of recruitment.

29.7. Such acts amount to impersonation and fraud, are calculated to deceive unsuspecting job seekers in the name of the Plaintiff, and have resulted in unlawful monetary gain to the Defendants, while simultaneously causing serious reputational harm, loss of goodwill, and erosion of public trust in the Plaintiff's well-established brand and corporate identity. Details pertaining to the complaint received by the Plaintiff against the Defendant's infringing activities are given at paragraph 92 of the plaint.

29.8. It is stated that Defendants have registered infringing domain name which appropriate the trademark of the Plaintiff and thereby mislead the unwary public into believing that the websites and email addresses associated with these domain names are associated with the Plaintiffs. In this application, the Plaintiff seeks suspension of these domain names. The Plaintiff has also enlisted the mobile numbers through which the infringing Defendants have approached the public and the bank account/UPI Ids used by the infringing Defendants for collecting monies. In this application, the Plaintiff seeks blocking of said mobile numbers and bank account/UPI Ids.

29.9. Defendant Nos. 19-26 include domain name registrars (Defendant Nos. 19-21), government entities (Defendant Nos. 22-24) and banks (Defendant Nos. 25-26). Defendant Nos. 19- 26 are not alleged to be infringers themselves, however their services are being used/abused by Defendant Nos. 1-18, to carry out the impugned activities, whereas Defendant no. 18 is a John Doe entity.

Court's Findings:

30. The Court, upon consideration of the material on record, is of the opinion that a prima facie case is made out in favour of the Plaintiff. The acts of the infringing Defendants in approaching unwary members of the public, falsely representing that they are offering employment on behalf of the Plaintiff, and demanding “process fees” for such employment, when the Plaintiff admittedly follows no such practice clearly amounts to misrepresentation, deception, and passing off.

31. The balance of convenience lies in favour of the Plaintiff, and if the Defendants are not restrained, the Plaintiff would suffer irreparable injury which cannot be adequately compensated in terms of money. The injunction is also necessary to protect the interests of the general public who are being ensnared by the infringing Defendants. Accordingly, this Court finds it just and necessary to grant an injunction restraining the Defendants from continuing such fraudulent activities.

32. Accordingly, till the next date of hearing, the following directions are being issued:

- I. Defendant no. 1 to 18 and all other persons acting on their behalf, are restrained from infringing the Plaintiff's trademarks, and any mark identical and/or deceptively similar to the Plaintiff's trademarks, in any form as well as passing off their business as/for the business of the Plaintiff on any email address, domain name, letter heads, offer letters etc., in any manner whatsoever.
