2.The said communication was shared with the Special Public Prosecutor, CBI and with the learned Senior Counsel for the appellant Mr.Muralikumaran appearing for Mr.R.Gopinath, learned counsel for the appellant. The learned Senior Counsel Mr.Muralikumaran submitted that the allegations contained in the representation are totally false and he is ready to cooperate with any kind of enquiry in this regard.

3.The learned Special Public Prosecutor submitted that this type of representation should not be entertained and such representation affects the dignity of the Court and therefore, stern steps to be taken to find the person behind such false representation and to take appropriate action.

4.In view of specific allegations contained in the representation given by All India Lawyers Association for Justice (AILAJ), Chennai, this Courts finds that it is appropriate that the issue to be referred to the Vigilance Cell of the Madras High Court. Hence, this Court is not inclined to hear this case. It is appropriate that the matter is placed before the Hon'ble Chief Justice for posting before an appropriate Bench and also to issue appropriate directions to the Vigilance Cell to conduct enquiry and to take appropriate action in this regard.
