To,

The Hon'ble Chief Justice of India,
Supreme Court of India,
New Delhi.

Subject: Concern regarding repeated adverse remarks concerning Allahabad High Court.

Respected Hon'ble Chief Justice Sir,

The Oudh Bar Association is our association working since 1901 and has actively participated in protection of rights and liberties of the poor, oppressed and suppressed class. It's the Oudh Bar Association which always portrays a role of a bridge between the suppressed class and the benches who deliver justice to them. In working for the oppressed and suppressed class we are also aware about our rights and the rights of the members of the legal fraternity.

It is the Oudh Bar Association which has taken initiative to stand for what is right and just, we also draw and interpret as to what is a fine line between what is just and reasonable. Working as a soldier of protecting rights and liberties, we cannot let any organization, institution or any machinery to oppresses the soldiers in black robes throughout the country. Any movement which would affect the rights and liberties of a lawyer would also not go unseen by the Oudh Bar Association, Lucknow.

My Lord, you are Head and Guardian of Indian Judiciary & Judicial System is growing in your able guidance across the India.

Our judicial system moves on the parallel wheels propelled by the unwavering faith of the litigants strong enough in their belief of getting justice through impartial system manned by judges with maximum output working under already stressed mounting pressure of ever increasing pendency of cases wherein judges of high courts sometimes unfortunately made to feel the impact of unexpected remarks made by the Apex Court on judicial side in its appellate jurisdiction which is felt to be demoralising effect on their judicial mind adverse to the capacity as a judge in the dispensation of justice.

It has also been made it clear that criticize erroneous judgments but not stressed Judges but despite all such Settled views there is sometimes overreach by our Apex Court in passing remarks on the capability of judge under impugned order which has serious jolting psychological effect on his or her judicial mind.

The remarks by Supreme Court sitting in appellate or extra ordinary jurisdiction on the order or judgement passed by judges of High Court if stigmatic has chilling effect on the working capacity of a particular judge whose justice delivery capacity is unquestionably appreciated by the members of the Court Annexed Bar at large.

The High Court of Uttar Pradesh sitting at Lucknow and at Prayagraj is functioning with less number of Judges against its actual capacity as such ever increasing pressure of mounting work load even of fresh cases which has cascading effect on the already stressed performance upto the hilt in the justice delivery system as such when any remark adverse to their capacity of sound judicial approach is bound to demoralise the particular as happened with Judge sitting at Lucknow in bail jurisdiction who unfortunately found himself under chilling effect of the remarks passed by the Apex Court under its appellate jurisdiction.

The Bar is the mother of the Bench and is best judge to assess the performance of every Judge in Justice delivery system running on two parallel wheels of Justice as such any remark by Apex Court adverse to the dignity of judge on judicial side has no doubt chilling effect not only on the particular Judge but on members of the Bar at large.

Wherefore, it is most respectfully prayed to your Lordship that kindly advise to all accompanying Hon'ble Judges to avoid adverse remark on the Hon'ble Judges of High Court, Uttar Pradesh while deciding the
