Court No. - 66

HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

1. No one appears on behalf of the applicant. However, learned AGA is present.
2. It has been informed that certain lawyers are protesting outside the Court in connection with the incident that occurred in Court No. 49. It is further reported that the protesting lawyers did not allow learned counsel for the applicant to enter the Court, as the gate had been locked from the outside.
3. The Hon'ble Apex Court has observed in a number of cases that stopping an advocate from entering the court while he is going to attend court proceedings itself amounts to contempt of court.
4. This Court is conscious that most of the advocates practising at the Allahabad High Court are not only very sincere but also well-behaved. It is surprising that, without any call from the Bar Association, certain persons claiming to be advocates of the High Court have stopped advocates from entering this Court for no reason. Therefore, the newly elected body of the Bar Association is requested to look into this issue so that the dignity of the courts, which includes advocates, whether private or government, is maintained.
5. However, in the interest of justice, the matter is adjourned for the day.
6. List as fresh on 23.11.2026.
