

Movie	Origin	Duration	Director	About	Sports
the documentary of the 10 (Maradona)	Argentina	01:36:00	Lucas Martin Costa	An original look at the life of Diego Maradona told through art: music, literature, poetry and much more. With the participation of more than 40 national artists, this documentary promises a purely cultural approach to the life and work of the number 10.	Soccer
Don't Look Away	Australia	01:19:22	Ashley Malcolm Morrison	Věra Čáslavská, a celebrated gymnast in the Czech Republic, is celebrated for winning all-around gold medals at two consecutive Olympics, alongside only Larisa Latynina and Simone Biles. She unique in having secured gold in every individual gymnastics event. In addition to her athletic prowess, she was a prominent figure in the Czechoslovak democratization movement and opposed the 1968 Soviet invasion, during which she trained in secret, uncertain of her participation in the Mexico Olympics. Her silent protest during medal ceremonies, where she looked away from the Soviet anthem, was both a personal stand and a statement that earned her disdain from the regime upon her return. Čáslavská faced years of restrictions after her activism and is portrayed in "Don't Look Away," highlighting her courage and achievements.	Gymnastics
Ester: A gymnast's dream	Brazil	00:14:00	waldemar castro	"ESTER A GYMNAST'S DREAM" is an inspiring story of overcoming, perseverance and dreams come true. By following Ester's journey, the documentary highlights how passion and talent can transcend economic and social barriers, offering a powerful message of hope and determination for all people seeking to achieve their dreams, regardless of their background.	Gymnastics
Parallel World	Bulgaria	00:21:15	Aleksandar Valchev	After his daughter's birth a tectonic shift in priorities casts an alpinist into the safer realm of high grade Dry Tooling. Seeking to reconcile fatherhood and high athletic pursuit he ends up in the shadow of one of the biggest rock roofs in the climbing world. Above him, the unending sky of limestone shelters one of the hardest lines of our times - Parallel World. An upside down universe of itself it requires nothing less than everything.	Mountain Climbing
Invasion of Qatar	Canada	01:13:04	Greg Crompton	Invasion of Qatar follows Alex Frobez's journey to the World Cup of Soccer in Qatar. Can he invade the field before he gets arrested and thrown in Qatari prison? Complicating things, he is also on a mission to reconnect with his father, a famous pitch invader in his own right, at the expense of his pregnant wife back home in Canada. This satirical film presents the tension between multi-billion dollar sporting events like the World Cup and the human rights abuses that go along with them.	Soccer
Love you Dad	China	01:34:44	CHENG BAI	Zhang Fei, a meek office worker, faces a personal crisis when his daughter is assaulted by a powerful adversary. Overwhelmed by pressure and coercion, he chooses to fight back rather than submit. Guided by a young coach, he undergoes an arduous month of training, where he learns resilience and perseverance. Despite enduring countless defeats in the ring, he ultimately confronts his opponent with courage. Though he loses the match, he gains the support of his daughter and the respect of those around him, demonstrating that dignity and love prevail over mere victory.	Boxing

Chekhov's Gun	Iran	00:08:14	Seyyed Abbas Hosseini	A young boy trapped in a bus graveyard believes that the baton held by the Olympic runners is an asthma spray. To get this spray, the boy starts chasing the runners to save his sick father, who has breathing problems, but he loses the runners. As a result of trying to find the runners, the boy enters a different bus from the others. As soon as the boy enters, he notices runners trying to get out of the screen installed in front of the bus and comes towards him.	Athletics
Muddy Foot	Iran	01:29:00	Mohammad-Ebrahim Azizi	Masoud Koohi dies during a football match due to a foul by Amin Rezvani, leading to suspicions of foul play. Musa, Masoud's brother, investigates and uncovers a betting website linked to manipulations in football matches. Initially, Amin claims Masoud orchestrated bets, including a foul he requested during the game. As Musa learns of significant betting earnings tied to Masoud and his family, he threatens to expose the truth. Before he can reveal this information on live TV, Musa is found dead near a waterfall, escalating the mystery surrounding the incident.	Soccer
Until Death	Mexico	00:38:00	Rosaura Aranda	This documentary tells the story of Club León's back-to-back championship through the perspective of three key players and its passionate fans. This story highlights the team's impact on the city's economic and social condition, celebrating the legacy that connects León with its people.	Football Fan
The Game of Tao	Netherlands	00:11:07	Esther Pardijs	In recent years, the sports world has faced scrutiny over excesses and transgressive behavior, prompting reflections from multiple World champion, Bettine Vriesekoop. Following the documentary TURN!, which highlighted mental and physical misconduct in sports and dance, Vriesekoop, now a trainer, questions whether top-level sport can exist without these issues. In her narrative, The Game of Tao, she advocates for a new approach that emphasizes balance and rhythm, suggesting that such principles can also apply to our everyday lives amidst their challenges.	TT
The Bay of Dreams	Portugal	00:03:53	Pedro Correia Luis, João Tiago Santos	The paradise of triathlon is revealed. The sea embraces every athlete, every dream, every will. São Martinho do Porto became a stage of courage. Of resilience. Of thousands of people filled with determination.	Triathlon
Believe in a dream	Russian Federation	01:27:08	Dmitry Vingursky	The documentary centered on the dramatic journey of professional ice hockey teams competing in the 2025 Gagarin Cup finals — the championship of the Kontinental Hockey League. The film captures not just the on-ice action of the climactic series between teams like Lokomotiv Yaroslavl and Traktor Chelyabinsk, but also the human stories and emotional depths behind the sport. It follows the players, coaches, and support staff as they confront the pressure, setbacks, triumphs, and personal sacrifices that accompany their quest for the coveted Gagarin Cup. The narrative highlights how perseverance, belief, and shared dreams drive individuals and teams in their pursuit of victory. Featuring real athletes — including hockey star Alexander Radulov and other prominent players appearing as themselves — the documentary blends thrilling game footage with behind-the-scenes moments that explore the spirit and resilience of professional athletes.	Ice Hockey

The Fencing Master	Russian Federation	00:41:14	Mikhail Degtyar, Anastasia Kuzyakova	The legendary Mark Rakita is rightfully considered the father of Russian sabre fencing. One of the most accomplished fencers in Russia's history, he won his first Olympic gold in Tokyo in 1964, and his second in Mexico City in 1968. He is also a six-time world champion, five-time European champion, and three-time USSR champion. But Rakita is not only a remarkable athlete—he is also a great coach and a true Fencing Master. Feared by opponents, Rakita was known as the smartest sabreur on Earth, winning not through brute force, but through strategy and intellect. Now 87 years old, Mark Rakita has spent his life proving that it's not the weapons—sabre, épée, or foil—that overcome obstacles, but the strength of the human spirit.	Fencing
The Art of Muaythai	Thailand	00:13:02	Kullachat Jitcajonwanich	Based on a true story. The history of Muay Thai master named Chinawut "Woody" Sirisompan (73 years) who dared to organize the 7th Martial Arts Festival in Thailand where you will see Muay Thai in many forms, both children, women, amateurs, professionals with protective gear and ancient Muay Thai with more than 900 athletes and 54 countries. And it is a proud moment for Siam Pandora Company Limited, where I am the film director(Kullachat Jitcajonwanich), to have participated in organizing this competition.	Muaythai
Arda Turan: Confrontation	Turkey	01:38:00	Umut Aral	The documentary chronicles the life and career of Turkish football star Arda Turan, highlighting his remarkable achievements on the international stage.	Soccer
A Story of Passion	Turkey	00:44:00	Erhun Altun	In the late 1970s, two idealistic physical education teachers at 50. Yıl High School in Ankara form a football team. This journey, filled with challenges, transforms into a tale of triumph through their friendships and unwavering passion. After years of struggle, the story culminates in 1997 with a victory at the High School World Championship in Peru. More than just a sports story, it is an inspiring tale of how faith and determination can overcome all boundaries. 1970'lerin sonlarında Ankara'daki 50. Yıl Lisesi'nde, iki idealist beden eğitimi öğretmeni bir futbol takımı kurar. Zorluklarla dolu bu yolculuk, dostlukları ve tutkularıyla bir başarı destanına dönüşür. Yıllar süren mücadele, 1997'de Peru'da kazanılan Liselerarası Dünya Şampiyonluğu ile taçlanır. Sadece bir spor hikâyesi değil, inancın ve kararlılığın sınırları nasıl aşabileceğini anlatan ilham verici bir tutkunun hikâyesidir.	Soccer
The Fight	UK	00:08:04	Antony Petrou	In a North London boxing gym ruled by boys, an 11-year-old girl trains with fierce resolve. When she's shut out, she makes a bold, heartbreakingly gesture that forces everyone to see her, a raw, poetic portrait of girlhood, grief, and resilience.	Boxing
Skechers Football - How's Your Touch	UK	00:02:13	John Reavey	Across Europe, the game's biggest stars lace up the new SKX_2 and face a challenge born on the streets: a test of touch, control, and creativity. In this electrifying short, the timeless question echoes louder than ever...How's your touch?	Football Skill
Through Hardship (Finding The Limit - Episode 9)	USA	00:27:37	Simon Bonneau	This MotoAmerica Superbike documentary follows a team's final race of the season at New Jersey Motorsports Park, amidst personal and financial challenges. The episode details intense race preparation, including bike modifications and unexpected setbacks. Crashes and subsequent repairs create high-stakes drama throughout the weekend.	Motor Sports

Untouchable	USA	00:17:59	Adam Lapallo	Roxanne is a fencing champion-turned-coach who was forced to retire too young. Her student, Miles, dreams of achieving glory in the NCAA, egged on by his overbearing father, Harvey. When Miles is waitlisted by his dream school, tension brews amongst the three of them. Mounting pressure from Harvey on Roxanne boils over at a local fencing tournament, and Roxanne's former student, Jillian, is caught in the crossfire. As Miles's tunnel vision around the NCAA worsens, Harvey's grip on Roxanne tightens, and Roxanne's relationship with fencing becomes a conflict of interest, Miles heads into an all-or-nothing bout that could spell victory or doom for the fledgeling duo.	Fencing
After Team Ladu	USA	00:14:27	Imran Qamar Zaman	In 'After Team Ladu', a group of resilient refugee children, rescued from a war-torn, unnamed country, find refuge in Pakistan. As they navigate the complexities of their new lives, local advocates strive to protect them, pushing boundaries of international law to shield these young souls. Enter Coach Yusuf Ali, an American-born mentor who arrives to ignite their dreams and rekindle hope. But as Yusuf invests in shaping their future, shadows of his own past begin to surface. Will he succeed in inspiring these children—or will the burdens he left behind threaten to unravel it all? 'After Team Ladu' is a heartfelt exploration of resilience and	Refugee Sports
Wrestling	India	00:24:20	Triptayan Chatterjee	A girl from a poverty stricken family from a village near Kolkata regularly comes to the city for earning to maintain the livelihood of her poor family. But here she has to face a lot of assault from bad peoples of the city. She tries to find out a solution. Once she was passing by a wrestling rim of a famous wrestling club. She got inspired to learn it. Watching her everyday to be there the club chief talks to her and offered free training. Hence she started training inspite of her hectic schedule for livelihood. At last she learns. And now what is the next? How did he maintain her livelihood at a par with saving herself in the society. The message of the wrestling and women empowerment has enriched the film entirely.	Wrestling
Folk Games of Bengal	India	01:00:00	Dhananjoy Mandal	Folk games are those games which are automatically derived from folk life. Around 250 folk games can be found across Bengal. From these most of the games played with rhymes and the rest are without rhymes. But most of the games are almost extinct today. The games in the film have been collected from remote villages of Bengal. The Film made with folk games of Bengal which is almost extinct chapter of a folk culture.	Folk Games
Athletes Are Mad	India	00:22:42	Ira Deokule	While most Indian kids grow up playing cricket, these athletes and their coach spent their lives on an athletics track. Running, jumping, throwing, walking...showing up every single day for years, just for that one day, where they can hopefully see their dreams take form. This is a tale of mad dreamers...this is a story of undying spirit. This is a film about track and field and the mad athletes who fell in love with it.	Athletics
That's How We Roll	India	00:15:38	Dnyanada Shantaram Sagare, Shravani Umesh Bagade	In Pune, two decades ago, a local PT teacher sparked the idea that led to the creation of Roll Ball, a sport combining speed, skill, and creativity. Within 22 years, it evolved into India's youngest and fastest-growing sport, gaining international recognition. This documentary chronicles the journey of Roll Ball, highlighting its invention by Mr. Raju Dabhade and featuring interviews with players and coaches. It reflects India's innovative spirit and dreams of achieving Olympic success, emphasizing the sport's role in building a community and fostering national pride.	Roll Ball

Hope	India	00:19:10	Rhythm Verma	Hope is a personal and emotional exploration of India's complicated relationship with football. Through intimate interviews with legends like Armando Colaco, Mahesh Gawli, Bruno Coutinho, and young players striving against the odds, the documentary uncovers the challenges, the passion, and the undying spirit behind Indian football. Blending historical milestones with raw present-day ground realities, Hope asks a simple yet powerful question — "If we love this game so much, why haven't we made it?" This film is my journey through that question, with hope as the answer.	Soccer
Shahrukh Jumper	India	00:07:55	Saksham Gumber	This 8-minute documentary follows Shahrukh Khan, a parkour artist from Rohini, Delhi, as he reflects on his remarkable journey. Growing up in a supportive family but facing skepticism from his neighborhood, Shahrukh pursued his passion for parkour against the odds. From humble beginnings, he achieved milestones once beyond his imagination — teaching parkour in Dubai and performing stunts for prominent Bollywood actors. Through intimate interviews and dynamic visuals, the film captures his resilience, dedication, and the transformative power of chasing one's dreams.	Parkour
Breaking the Barriers - India's Race to glory !	India	01:22:47	Sujith Aradhya	An inspirational true story of Indian motorsports and the convergence narrated by the racers of yore and auto journalists. The series takes the viewer on a journey of the gone by era to current date in a chronological order. These inspirational stories showcase the grit and determination of the unsung heroes of Indian Motorsports, who carved a niche and laid the strong foundation by achieving an Unimaginable feat in spite of all the barriers that they had. This is the story of the movers and shakers of Indian Motorsports, who Broke all the Barriers and contributed for India's race to glory!. (Season-1 timeline 1949 to 1989 )	Motor Sports
Mute Mountain	India	00:22:46	A K M Shaifulla	'Mute Mountain' is a documentary featuring Chayan Halder, a 14-year-old deaf and mute boy from a poor family in Raidighi, Sunderban, India. Initially shy and introverted, Chayan attends Sister Nivedita Deaf and Mute School, where he embarks on a trip to Bero Pahar for mountaineering training. Accompanied by friends and their teacher, the three-day camp aims to enhance communication, teamwork, and self-confidence among specially-abled children. Despite challenges, Chayan overcomes his fears and successfully participates in climbing activities with both normal and differently-abled peers. Ultimately, the experience fosters unity, resilience, and an understanding of their capabilities in overcoming obstacles.	Mountaineering
Invincible	USA	01:45:00	Ericson Core	It is an inspirational biographical sports drama about Vince Papale, a 30-year-old bartender and substitute teacher in economically struggling Philadelphia in 1976. After losing his teaching job and his wife, he seizes the chance to attend the Philadelphia Eagles' open public tryout set by new head coach Dick Vermeil. Despite lacking college football experience, Papale impresses with his speed and makes the final roster after overcoming skepticism and physical challenges. He ultimately contributes to the Eagles' first win of the season with a pivotal play. The film concludes by highlighting his three seasons with the team and his marriage to Janet, a bartender he met along the way.	American Football

Queen of Katwe	USA	02:04:00	Mira Nair	Phiona Mutesi, a 10-year-old girl living in the slums of Katwe, Uganda, faces daily struggles alongside her mother and siblings. Their lives change when she meets Coach Robert Katende, who introduces her to chess. Under his mentorship, Phiona excels in the game, competing successfully against local and national opponents. Despite initial discomfort in affluent settings, she wins first place in a school tournament. Her journey leads her to represent Uganda at the Chess Olympiad in Russia, where she faces defeat. Returning to Katwe, she overcomes her self-doubt with support from her coach and community, eventually achieving success that allows her to provide a better life for her family.	Chess
TOVA - Greatest Hand, Worst Elbow	Croatia	00:52:00	Damir Jelic	TOVA narrates the inspiring life of a legendary athlete Antun Tova Stipancic from former Yugoslavia, a 1979 Table Tennis World Champion, recognized as "the most talented left-hand in the world of table tennis." The film chronicles his progression from a humble upbringing to significant sporting success, culminating in his early death. It highlights how his challenging childhood and strong self-belief forged his path to becoming a champion. The documentary features tributes from notable contemporaries, including multiple world champion István Jonyer and Olympic silver medalist Zoran Primorac, who reflect on his remarkable achievements of 27 European and World medals. This project has been developed in collaboration with the ITTF, ETTU, and the Croatian Table Tennis Association.	TT
MESSI	India	02:10:00	Arnab Riingo Banerjee	Two brothers fight the odds to make their fathers dream come true and they lose much more in the bargain. The film is on street soccer where every kid dreams to be a Messi and to live the dream they are willing to go beyond the distance.	Soccer
Bi-cycle Kick	India	01:48:00	Debasish Sen Sharma	Rubayet is a 19 year old loner from Kolkata who prefers solitude to the company of his classmates. Little do they know he's a pro at football until Motida, the football coach discovers his potential. Not only does Motida help Rubayet realize his potential but he also reaches out to him and even visits Rubayet's home town to learn about his roots. This he does to try to find out what caused Rubayet to be so withdrawn and reticent. What happens after Motida visits Rubayet's native place, does he manage to help Rubayet? How does this step change Motida's own life?	Soccer
Khadda	India	00:17:00	Rushan Jesani	'Khadda' is a film inspired by real-life experiences, particularly the journey of a semi-professional player in India. It focuses on Aryan, a wealthy soccer player fighting against bias from his team captain to prove his right to play. The film explores themes of commitment, determination, and the need to overcome societal misconceptions regarding wealth and hard work. It emphasizes that hard work is essential for everyone, regardless of background, as they seek recognition for their skills and abilities. Aryan's story illustrates his transition from depending on family wealth to asserting himself and achieving success through his efforts.	Soccer

Gold	India	02:33:42	Reema Kagti	The story chronicles the Indian hockey team's journey from the 1936 Berlin Olympics to their first gold medal win at the 1948 London Olympics. It centers on Tapan Das, the assistant manager, who, after the partition of India, faces team struggles as players split between Pakistan and Australia. Despite these challenges, Tapan builds a new team and trains them, leading to conflicts over player selection. His perseverance pays off as India defeats Great Britain 4–3, culminating in a poignant moment when the national anthem plays as they receive the gold medal, marking a victory for independent India.	Hockey
-------------	-------	----------	-------------	--	--------